A MATCH MADE IN HEAVEN

Adopted as a baby kitten, Fuzzy, now 12 years old, found himself homeless due to a series of unfortunate circumstances. After 10 years in a loving home, his owner fell on hard times and had to relinquish him. Pet Rescue makes a lifetime commitment to the animals we rescue and Fuzzy was welcomed back. He was in a foster home for two years until his owner was able to get back on his feet and reclaimed him. But within 8 months he lost his job... and Fuzzy headed back to Pet Rescue once again.

Meanwhile, in the next town over, Lucille had been mourning the loss of her cat. She missed the companionship and love of a pet but as a senior, realized her age may play a factor in adoption. Nonetheless, with the help of her daughter, she decided to fill out an adoption application anyway.

When our volunteers received Lucille's application, they knew immediately this would be a perfect match for our senior fostering program, which gives some of our overlooked older pets a chance at living in a home. And they were right... it was a match made in heaven! Fuzzy moved in with Lucille and made himself right at home... he sleeps on her bed, has toys to play with and enjoys lounging by the window. Lucille calls him Tippy and enjoys doting on him.

EVERY DOG HAS HIS DAY

A call came in about a 12 year dog that was abandoned in a Bronx apartment after his mom had to move into a nursing home. Unfortunately, the family could only get to care for him every few days. So we took him in, had him groomed and named him Mister. Even after experiencing a very lonely few weeks, Mister was trusting and loving in his foster home. Once Mister was medically stabilized at our veterinary clinic, he was posted for adoption.

Adopter Michele had just lost her 16 year old schnauzer and applied to adopt a puppy at Pet Rescue. But something about Mister caught her eye and the moment Mister jumped on her lap and leaned his head into her chest, she was smitten: "It was like THIS schnauzer/yorkie mix with his sweet face, snaggles-tooth, and curled tail was saying to me 'You're my person.'"

Now Mister is living the good life in NYC. Michele recently sent an update:

"He is such a pleasure and you'd never know he is 12 years old! He's well-mannered and such a joy to have around, he's so young at heart! Mister Man loves being a city dog. He never barks, his tail is always wagging and he's a big snuggler. We are a perfect match and I'm so grateful!"

MEET LILITH

MEET MADISON

Lilith is such a nice gal. She's approximately 1 year old and weighs 60 lbs. She has a lot of energy and would love a home with a big back yard and a family who will take her hiking or running. Lilith loves people and is very sweet. She enjoys long walks with our volunteers and cannot wait to find her forever home.

This stunning swirl tabby was rescued from a colony of feral cats in the Bronx. She was clearly not part of the group, not the least bit "feral" and her rescuer took her home to find her a permanent residence as a cherished pet. Madison is about 10 months old, very sweet, very outgoing and will flip over for belly rubs.
